tasting notes

The wine opens up to a bouquet of red cherries, violets, spice and black pepper. There are further hints of smokiness, black berries and moist tobacco on the nose. Distinct notes of pepper, all spice, dark fruit and nutmeg can be distinguished on the palate. The wine is well balanced and has a good structure and dry finish.

ageing potential

It is a wine made to enjoy and savour now, but can be kept for a year or two in bottle.
